

The Caring for Carcinoid Foundation

Invites you to attend its

Ask the Experts Patient Seminar

An interactive, educational conference where you, the patient, set the agenda!

Date: 9:00 A.M. – 3:00 P.M., Sunday, March 29th, 2009

Location: Thaliens Auditorium, Cedars-Sinai Medical Center, Los Angeles, CA

Cost: Free

Handicap Access is available

Join your fellow NET patients for a day of question and answer and other educational events. Ask leading physicians in the fields of oncology, liver transplant, primary care, surgery, internal medicine, and gastroenterology, the questions you want answered.

The expert panel includes:

Dr. Jean Botha: Liver Surgery, Nebraska Medical Center

Dr. George Fisher: Oncology, Stanford Comprehensive Cancer Center

Dr. Greg Fitzke: Surgery, Surgical Associates of Lincoln

Dr. Nirmala Hidalgo: Pain Management, UCLA Pain Management Center

Dr. Pamela Kunz: Oncology Fellow, Stanford Comprehensive Cancer Center

Dr. Matthew Meyerson: Genomics, Dana Farber Cancer Institute

Dr. Joseph Pisegna: Internal Medicine, UCLA Medical Center

Dr. Edward Wolin: Oncology, Outpatient Cancer Center, Cedar Sinai

Dr. Michael Zaruba: Primary Care, Auburn Family Health Center

Rachel S. Beller MS, RD: Nutritional Oncology, Beller Nutritional Institute

Morning Session

Each speaker will give a brief lecture and then participate in a panel moderated by Nancy O'Hagan. Nancy will ask the doctors questions submitted by patients and caregivers. We ask that you submit your questions in advance to askthedoctor@caringforcarcinoid.org. To guarantee your question gets answered, be sure to submit it today!

Afternoon Session

CFCF will hold small group meetings with leading experts to discuss topics from insurance to wellness.

To sign up for this event, please contact: benblackwood@caringforcarcinoid.org
For more information, please visit: www.caringforcarcinoidfoundation.org

CARING FOR CARCINOID FOUNDATION

Dedicated to discovering a cure for carcinoid cancer